

La Casa Del Sol

Guest IP & Financial Responsibility Agreement

Financial Responsibility Disclosure

La Casa Del Sol (the resort) allows you, our deeded owners, to extend their resort privileges to friends and family members on a unit availability basis. Allowing guests to utilize the resort under your ownership privileges implies a financial responsibility on your part. This responsibility obligates you to ensure payment in full for any and all damages, fines, fees or levies incurred by your guests while staying at the resort or as a result of not showing and/or late cancellation. As a courtesy, we will accept credit card information from your guests and will charge the card only if necessary. However, you are ultimately responsible for payment of any charges. Further details are available on our website – lacasaresort.com

I have read the above policy regarding my financial responsibility to La Casa Del Sol for allowing my guests to utilize the resort under my deeded ownership. I understand that any outstanding balance on my account due to unpaid dues, damage assessments, fines or levies may result in forfeiture to use the resort until said balance is paid.
